So far away

Your ways aren't bound to man
You take me through the fire, through the trials
To make me Holy

Pre

Though darkness comes my way
Though You test me I will say

V3

Higher are Your ways
Your work a mystery
When silence is all I hear, all my fear starts
Coming back to me

Bridge

When the summers gone and the winter cold is here
When the feelings go and Your voice I cannot hear
When comfort leaves and loneliness set in
When sickness comes and the future light is dim
When the wicked thrive and the righteous suffer on
